

6516208532.txt

My local radio programming is so appalling with its outdated music choices, obnoxious used-car ads, and hit or miss news coverage that I would rather pay money to listen to xm radio. Conventional broadcasting could use the competition of local xm broadcasting! If it was better, I wouldn't even think of paying money to listen to the radio.